

It would not be safe to allow cell phones on airplanes. Passengers will be talking on phones during safety briefings and not paying attention. If there is an emergency, passengers would be talking on the phone instead of paying attention to instructions from the captain. It will cause conflict between people who want to read or rest and people who will be talking the entire flight. Please do not approve cell phones for use on airplanes.